INGENUITY'S CREDO

We are the orchestra's guests and the audience buys tickets to hear their orchestra. We provide the framework for the evening. Our acknowledgement and respect extends to our orchestrations and programming which integrates and highlights the orchestra throughout each of our concerts.

PROGRAMMING

- Our concerts are programmed for the maximum enjoyment of the music by the audience and the musicians.
- Quality concerts require a musicality and rhythm, a theme, an arc and variety. We don't cut corners by using a quick fix by arbitrarily throwing together a list of songs (aka Karaoke Concerts) because it is an easier process.
- We spend many months in piano/vocal rehearsals to be sure that all the pieces are in place to present a concert that is quality, entertaining and accessible. Each song is chosen, arranged and placed in the concert to achieve this.
- The concerts are fully staged and choreographed, and the singers are fully rehearsed before we arrive in your city.
- We have successfully adapted our concerts to the needs of the orchestra for galas, fundraisers, etc.

ARRANGEMENTS/ORCHESTRATIONS

- We use award winning arrangers/orchestrators. There are first chair solos throughout the evening. Our music has been highly praised by musicians and conductors.
- The orchestra is an equal star in our concerts. They are not incidental backup to the singers. Orchestra only pieces, newly orchestrated are integrated throughout our concerts spotlight the conductor and orchestra.
- Unless requested, we do not use rented charts. In general, most Broadway and Pop arrangements are not arranged or orchestrated properly for orchestral concert work. Most Broadway shows today have under 9 players. Our new orchestrations respect all the musicians in your orchestra and give them good music to play ... which only enhances the enjoyment for the orchestra's audience.
- Our charts have been printed clearly on concert size paper. Measure numbers are indicated throughout to facilitate rehearsal.
- The music is bowed, and carefully paginated to facilitate page turns.
- Respecting the never-ending work of orchestra librarians, our books are bound in concert order by instrument.
- The conductor scores are printed on 11 x 17 paper and bound in concert order.

INGENUITY PERFORMERS

Our performers are the best in the business. They have starred, and continue to star, in shows on Broadway, the West End, and National Touring Companies, as well as PBS and other television and film projects. They have not "retired" to the concert stage. They bring their passion for their work to the concert stage which only enhances the presentation as a whole. Individual Artist Biographies can be found on our website. www.IngenuityProductions.com
